

Dr Amy LaTrielle

Dr Amy LaTrielle is the new Director for Fragile and Conflict Countries at Gavi. Amy brings over 20 years' experience leading and strengthening global operations across the enterprise to drive quality programming at scale. Prior to joining Gavi, she was Vice President for Global Operations at Population Services International (PSI), based in Washington D.C. Over the past decade she has served in various field (Nigeria, Uganda, Nepal) and HQ leadership roles providing strategic leadership and operational and financial guidance and oversight to some of PSI's largest regions in revenue generation and health impact. This includes time in-country building large regional and country programs and recently, as Vice President for a new PSI department, Fragile and Conflict countries, she started and built it into PSI's largest revenue and health impact-generating operation. Amy holds a bachelor's degree in History and French from The University of Montana and an MBA from The University of Phoenix.

Sixty-eighth session of the WHO Regional Committee for the Eastern Mediterranean
Cairo, Egypt
11–14 October 2021

